Here is the booking procedure

- 1) I download and fill in the booking form
- 2) Attach a recent photo of yourself. Any snapshot will do. This is to help us to identify you.
- 3) Post it to us. Alternatively scan the form and email it to us with your photo.
- 4) Unless you have paid online (Module 1 and Certification Course 1 only) please enclose your payment with the application form or post it to us. If you require a payment plan please email us using the right email address for the module or course you want to book (see details on the left).
- 5) For multiple bookings you need a separate application form and photo for each applicant.

Cancellation Policy

Should you wish to cancel you must do so 28 days before the first day of the course. After this date fees are non refundable. There is a 10% deduction for any cancellation.

It may be possible to transfer your booking to a later course in the case of illness or other unexpected emergency that occurs within less than 28 days.

The details of the times and venue will be sent with your booking confirmation or appear on the website.

Why do we need a photo?

We need your photo simply to help us to identify you.

Your application form will be filed with your photo attached.
